7 - 8 September 2017

II International Conference African Urban Planning

AIMS AND THEMES

The 2nd International Conference on African Urban Planning, organized by the Institute of Geography and Spatial Planning - University of Lisbon, in collaboration with the International Planning History Society (IPHS), will be held in Lisbon, on September 7-8, 2017.

It will be a forum for the discussion of the state-of-the-art of research on African Urban Planning, four years after the first conference in 2013.

The Conference will bring together researchers and planners from academia, public and private sectors, and non-governmental organizations, in an effort to present and debate their research on African Urban Planning and to share knowledge, viewpoints, methods, research outcomes and policy ideas.

It is organized around four main themes:

- Theme 1 - The History of African Urban Planning
- Theme 2 - Learning from African Urban Planning
- Theme 3 - Localizing Goal 11 of the SDGs and The New Urban Agenda
- Theme 4 - Social and economic changes in African cities

CALL FOR PAPERS
